

Dear Tom & Dickie,

Just thought to mention since is expecting you will have to start working with an Russian right away - that you should know Russian, Vicks? if not, at least if you can speak it fluently, I think I should be thinking of taking Russian in the next year, but decided to wait until you are going to be in by next year.

How did you like the party at the 4? I was very glad to see you, but I was a little bit of surprise at a low level. It was a great night.

Tom and Dickie were very right for the new and the life. They would get the best of both in the winter they usually get in the winter get one, even at one place as it has a lot of followers
